MARRIED ON TIME

But Ceremony Took Place in Hospital

GROOM RECENTLY HURT IN NEW YORK

Marriage Allowed to Aid His Recovery

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—With half of his body encased in plaster of paris, too weak to rise from an invalid chair, Fred A. Swan, a wealthy real estate broker, was married yesterday in the staff room of Flower hospital, surrounded by white-uniformed doctors and nurses, to Miss Adelaide Wood of Dorchester, Mass.

The surgeons consented to the marriage in the hospital in the hope of saving Swan's life. He worried so much about his wedding, which had been fixed for yesterday in Boston, that his injuries would not heal and the doctors feared gangrene would set in and cause either his death or the loss of both legs.

Mr. Swan is 31 years old and lives at 128 West 42d street, in the Carlton apartments. He is a son of J. Benjamin Swan of Tecumseh, Mich., several times a millionaire.

On the evening of Aug. 29 Mr. Swan was on a north bound 6th avenue surface car, standing on the running board, because of the crowded condition of the car. At 49th street he was struck by a motor car owned and driven by J. R. Kirby. He was knocked off the car, dragged a short distance and thrown with great force against an L pillar.

An ambulance from Flower hospital arrived and Dr. Day found that in addition to superficial injuries the young man had a compound fracture of the right foot and ankle and a compound fracture of the left foot.

After an operation the patient remained so feverish and restless that the doctors feared gangrene. He was continually asking when he could get out of the hospital. His condition became so alarming that Dr. Hornby, superintendent of the hospital, went to his room and had a heart-to-heart talk with him.

The superintendent told the young man that he wanted him to confide in his recovery and might result most seriously.

"I am to be married on the 30th of this month to Miss Wood," Mr. Swan said. "You can appreciate the embarrassment it will cause if I am not there."

Dr. Hornby assured him there was no possibility of his being able to leave the hospital, as on and Mr. Swan asked if it could be arranged so that he could be married in the hospital.

"I'll see the head nurse," the superintendent answered.

"The staff room is a very nice place," Miss Tully, the head nurse, said. "It can be fixed up nicely for a wedding."

The staff room is the meeting place of the physicians and surgeons. Mr. Swan communicated with Miss Wood. She agreed.

Mr. Swan's father and mother came on from Michigan and Mr. Wood, accompanied by her father and mother, arrived at the hospital about 2 in the afternoon. Swan had been placed on a combination stretcher and invalid chair and carried to the staff room.

Surrounded by Drs. Bentley, Case, Lacombe, Lannon, Day and O'Neil and Miss Tully, Mr. Swan and Miss Wood were married according to the ceremony of the society of Friends, both being Quakers. James Wood of Westchester, who is not related to the bride, acted as minister.

After the ceremony luncheon was served, but Mr. Swan was not permitted to touch it. Convalescent patients in the hospital were invited to the luncheon. The flowers were distributed in the wards.

Mr. Swan has taken a room next to that occupied by her husband and will assist the nurses in caring for him. The doctors say he must remain in the hospital for a month or more.

COW BELLOVED

AND SAVED LIVES OF WHOLE FAMILY.

PEABODY, Aug. 30. M. W. Ellis and his wife and family of four children had a narrow escape from being victims of a fire which burned the farmhouse in which they lived last night.

They were asleep when the fire, which started on the first floor of the house, was discovered, and the smoke had already filled the chambers on the second floor, when Mr. Ellis was awakened.

He aroused Mrs. Ellis, and they succeeded in getting the children out safely, although two of the little ones were unconscious.

The believing of a cow which was fastened in a barn close to the house awakened Mr. Ellis, and undoubtedly saved the lives of the entire family.

The loss is $4000, insurance $3000.

GREEN MISSING

A SALISBURY BEACH RESIDENT DISAPPEARS.

SALISBURY BEACH, Aug. 30.—The whereabouts of George Green, for the past half dozen years a candy manufacturer at Salisbury beach, continues a mystery to his brother and sister, as well as to his many friends and associates.

On the last day of July he started for Revere beach, where he proposed to stop a day or two. A few days later his brother Joseph received a line from him stating that he had been overcome by the heat, but had so far recovered that he was starting for the home of their sister in Taunton, Mrs. Deyve.

Since that time no intelligence has been received from him. Some years ago Mr. Green suffered a sunstroke and with this new attack it is feared that his mind may be temporarily deranged. He took about $100 with him and wore a valuable diamond pin, consequently there are some fears that he might have met with foul play. No known reason exists why he should absent himself at this time, the busy season of the year. Relatives of the missing man live in New York state, but they have been heard from since his disappearance and no mention is made of having seen him.

Line Upon Line; Precept Upon Precept

I am aware of the fact that it is not told tale, but I must reiterate the statement that the coal from the mines which are shipped to me, are as careful as careful can be, but that doesn't tell the whole story—I give it a thorough screening myself. Result, you get clean coal.

BRYAN'S PROGRAM

All the Arrangements for Tonight's Event Completed

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—William J. Bryan spent the night about the yacht Illini and this morning he was taken off and went aboard Lewis Nixon's houseboat, anchored off Stapleton, N. Y. One of the early callers on Mr. Bryan was Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland. Mr. Bryan returned to the Illini for luncheon. Mr. Bryan said today that he is not to speak at Newark, N. J., Saturday night as previously announced. Tonight he will speak at the Madison Square reception and tomorrow morning he will go to New Haven. In the evening he will go to Bridgeport. Saturday will be spent in New York and Mr. Bryan will be engaged with his private business in the morning he will go to Jersey City and deliver a speech, after which he will return to New York to attend the dinner tendered him by newspapersmen. Either Sunday night or Monday morning he will leave for Chicago, being due there Tuesday and will speak at the Franklin club dinner that evening. As soon as he can get away from that dinner, he will leave for Lincoln, Neb.

Just a little before noon today Mr. Bryan received the newspaper men at the houseboat. His first word to them was that he would not talk about persons or politics.

"How about Speaker Cannon's candidacy for their presidency?" Mr. Bryan was asked.

"An Cannon is both person and politics," Mr. Bryan replied, "I cannot discuss him."

"How about Russia and the duma?" Mr. Bryan was asked.

"No one can speak with any degree of certainty," he replied, "as to what the immediate future of Russia will be, but we can speak with certainty of the ultimate result. I might illustrate it this way: If you ask me in February what sort of weather we will have I cannot say whether it will be snow or storm or sunshine, but I can say that in a few months we will have summer. No one can say what experience Russia will pass through in the next few years, but it is possible to say she is going to have constitutional reform of government."

Mr. Bryan declined to discuss New York politics.

Scores of workmen were in Madison Square Garden early today arranging seats and decorations, so as to insure everything in readiness for the Bryan reception.

Courtesies will be in charge of the police and he will have under him two inspectors, nine captains, ten sergeants and 600 patrolmen. The crowds of visitors from the various sections of the country were largely augmented today. The blocks from 23rd street to Canal street were filled all day with typical men of the west, waiting for Mr. Bryan to come ashore.

Among the early arrivals of democrats from other cities, to attend the reception were 21 delegations from New Hampshire.

WOULDN'T DISCUSS SULLIVAN

"Has Mr. Hearst called?" Mr. Bryan was asked.

"No," replied Mr. Bryan. "Do you expect him?"

"I can't say."

"It has been stated Mr. Hearst was not entirely friendly to you but he has denied that statement. Is it true?"

"I do not think that either Mr. Hearst or myself have to deny any statement of that kind."

"What is your impression of your European trip?"

"We went with the belief that it would be educational and found it even more instructive than we had expected."

"You were in Germany, Mr. Bryan, did you look into the attitude of that country toward the United States as regards tariff?"

"That question would drive into the tariff controversy. The tariff is too much a question to settle in half a dozen sentences and I have not time for more extended treatment."

Mr. Bryan declined to talk about Roger Sullivan.

GREETING IN THE HARBOR.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—This is "Bryan Day" in New York, and although the Nebraska man who last night slept in a launch on Gravesend Bay will not again put foot on native soil until late this afternoon, the many welcoming delegations in town were early assembling and varied touches on their enthusiastic welcomes did not have their eyes on the skies.

It was after 1 o'clock this morning when Mr. Bryan retired on board Col. Goltz's yacht Illini, but it had been planned not to disturb him early today, and he took advantage of the opportunity to fortify his physical powers against the fatigue of a tonight's meeting at Madison Square garden.

At the home of Lewis Nixon at Stapleton, Staten Island, where Mr. Bryan spent last evening with personal friends, he appeared in robust health. He has a clear complexion and his eyes shone and danced as he talked.

While Mr. Nixon and his guests were at dinner, the Jacob H. Tamm association, of Tompkinsville, which has come ashore as soon as it was known that Mr. Bryan was expected, unloaded a lot of fireworks. Shortly after dinner, Mr. Bryan was serenaded by the M. C. V. Elkhorn German singing society, thirty strong. This is the society which took third prize at the international singing contest. Its first number was "My old Kentucky Home," German selections followed.

Mr. Bryan made a short speech, thanking the singers and telling them that he would always remember the incident. Several of the singers were introduced to Mr. Bryan, and expressed a wish to meet Mrs. Bryan.

When Mrs. Bryan was taken out by her husband, Mr. Bryan said:

"I have no German blood in my veins, but my wife has. All of my German is in my wife's name, so I can't thank you in the language of your fatherland."

"We're all good Americans, now," said the leader of the society.

"Those who love their fatherland always love the land of their adoption, and make the best kind of citizens," Mr. Bryan replied.

There were several callers later in the evening, among them Burton C. Harrison. One of these callers, Mr. Bryan, who he thought of the phonetic system of spelling, and he said it was not interesting. He remembered a boy who had once spelled church "schurche" and said he thought boys that the idea of spelling was sound.

A feature of the evening was the ready manner in which Mrs. Bryan's imported dachshund, "Richard Croker," made himself at home. He made many friends and was much petted.

Mr. Bryan refused to talk politics during the evening, but before he left to re-embark for the night on the Illini, he expressed himself as very grateful for the kindness shown by President Roosevelt in facilitating the landing of himself and his family.

Miss Grace Bryan, who yesterday conveyed with the Tammows from the pier in Hoboken was presented with a postal card two feet long and 12 feet wide on the front of which was a likeness of her father. The postal card was made of metal. It was presented by Mr. Bryan's well wishers in the normal school at Kirksville, Mo.

With the landing of Mr. Bryan at Pier A at 1 o'clock this afternoon, the official reception began. There Mr. Bryan will be met by a sub-committee headed by the chairman of the reception committee, day folk of Missouri, Acting Mayor McGowan will be on hand to extend a welcome on behalf of the city of New York.

There will be a few moments devoted to handshaking and Mr. Bryan will then start on a short drive through the city.

The ride through the streets is designed to give everybody a chance at least to see Mr. Bryan. There will be an informal reception in the parlors of the hotel after Mr. Bryan's arrival.

Mr. Bryan will be driven to the Madison Square garden soon after 8 o'clock.

A conference at Mr. Nixon's home last night resulted in the adoption of a definite program for Mr. Bryan during his stay in the east. He will go to New Haven on Friday and will have a reception at noon on the college green.

On the following day he will be in Bridgeport as the guest of Senator Archibald McNeill. On Saturday afternoon he will speak in Newark and Jersey City, attending a dinner given him by New York laborer men in the evening. He will leave New York for the west Sunday night or Monday.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Wm. J. Bryan left Stapleton for New York City on the yacht Illini at 3 p. m.

The yacht Illini with Mr. Bryan on board will reach the battery about 3:25 p. m.

The order of the commission is as follows:

EXTRA

GANG OF THIEVES

Said to be Operating in Lowell

The police would warn you that if you are going away, leaving your house unoccupied, close and lock the doors and windows.

A gang of thieves with a few accessories and workers on the side have struck town and have been operating quite freely. While the police refuse to give a list of the reports of larcenies committed they do not deny that a gang of thieves are at work in Lowell. The fact of the matter is that the police will not give all the information regarding breakers, burglars, holdups, etc., unless they get their money.

On the surface this might seem to be a good policy, but it isn't. It is the duty of the police to report the breakers if a gang of crooks are operating in Lowell it wouldn't do any harm to know about it. We might be able to offer the police an evidently much needed assistance.

The new police board is desirous of doing great things and it might be well for the board to consider the proposition that is herein outlined.

It was stated today that the old Judge Five looms in Central street had been broken into and that considerable money had been stolen.

A representative of The Sun asked Supt. Moffat if the house in question had been broken into and the superintendent said that a break had been reported in that vicinity, but he was not sure that was the cause or number. An inspector had been sent out yesterday to investigate the affair but had not reported. The police were willing to admit that breakers have been quite frequent of late, but there doesn't seem to be any unusual stir about the police station.

POLICE GIVE UP

Betting War Ended at Readville Track

HEAT-BETTING HAD BIG DAY

"My Star" Paces a Great Race

READVILLE, Aug. 29.—Officers John H. Scott of Readville and James H. Brady of Salem, members of the state police force, looked on and watched yesterday afternoon while white-backed bills of $5, $10 and even $100 denominations were passed up to the busy bookmakers by the grand stand at Readville track.

Stiltz, the Barber, Talks

Persons Suffering from Dandruff or Baldness Should Read This.

Dear Sir:—I used your Parian Sage and found it better than any other. It is the best Hair Restorer I ever used, and I have used them all. I find it a great dandruff remover also. You should get it into all the barber shops and get the barbers to use it as it is great. I remain, yours truly, Geo. A. Stiltz, 73½ Main Street, Springfield, Mass.

Why do you continue to allow the small persistent germ of dandruff to destroy your hair when Parian Sage is guaranteed by us and by Ellingwood & Co., Merrimack street, to remove every vestige of dandruff in six days or money back.

50 cents a bottle.
If you cannot get Parian Sage from druggists in your vicinity we will send you a bottle for 50 cents—stamps or silver—charges prepaid.

ally notified by former Atty-Gen. Herbert Parker, counsel for the New England Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, by which the Readville track is controlled, that there would be no betting in connection with yesterday's races but in strict conformity with the law as it had been interpreted by Associate Justice Harrison A. Phillips in Boston police court yesterday morning.

The state police had been further informed by Mr. Parker that in case any attempt was made by the officers to interfere with the betting at the track so long as it was conducted along the lines laid down, suits against the police would be immediately instituted. Mr. Parker also made an effort to soundly notify the officials, but the state's chief executive could not be reached in the morning.

The modification to the state police, under Chief Shaw, apparently failed, for while the officers were told that they made not the slightest effort to interfere with proceedings, excepting one lone bookmaker, who was caught attempting to manipulate a handbook of his own upon the grand stand, he was promptly informed that if he was to be kept there, he would have to return to the betting ring, hence the grand stand that was the only place where money was made by the police during the afternoon.

In order to make sure that the bookmakers did not exceed the narrow limitations of the law, Atty. Gen. H. Parker from Mr. Parker's Boston office, was in the track all the afternoon and before the betting began had a conference with Secretary Jewett's office with those who controlled the betting. The police pointed out to them they were plainly just law for they could legally go in and accept wagers upon the races and was in and out of the betting ring during the afternoon chatting occasionally with the state officers who were on duty.

The prohibition that the second week's racing at Readville would be even better than the first was borne out by the sport that was seen yesterday afternoon. With one exception every horse that won a heat lowered his record, and closer and more interesting racing has not been seen in the grand circuit this season.

The surprise of the day was the victory of the little chestnut gelding My Star in the 200 pace. Argot Boy (2000), who paced such a remarkable state and lowered the colors of Ed Street's great mare Ardelle, was a hot favorite for the event, but My Star took the Argot Wilkes gelding into camp in one-two-three order. It must be admitted that Argot Boy was not in as good form as he was last week. He did not appear to have lost a brush of speed and acted like a horse that had lost his edge.

My Star was brilliant over with speed and for the first time in his career the public had a chance to pass upon his courage and gameness. The grandson of Robert McGregor certainly put up a race that was to be credited to his title. When he went across the wire in the deciding heat, with Argot Boy right at his throat, his ears were laid flat along his neck and if even a horse bradied the air he split his nostrils great achievements possible in the first few strides of this heat.

Quitting Argot Boy was caught a bit off yesterday, the fact remains that My Star, who was picked up early in the season by Jack Cardwell for a modest sum, is the best of the season.

In the first two heats of yesterday's race, My Star stepped him to the front of the heat and was never headed. In the first heat Cox laid back in third place till the stretch was reached and then tried to out pace My Star's chance in the stretch. He had underestimated the ability of My Star, however, and though he drew up to the chestnuts wheel at the distance, the Argot Wilkes gelding was all in when he got within striking distance, and My Star was taking the easy when My Star flashed under the wire with a new record of 2:04.

The real test came in the second heat. This time Walter Cox did not let My Star get so far away. He kept Argot Boy at the chestnuts wheel all the way and went after him at the head of the stretch. It was one of the hottest battles of the year all the way up the stretch. Cox never worked harder in his life, and My Star, tried manfully, but it was no use, as My Star never once faltered, and when Argot Boy got to his throat he had a dozen lengths from the wire and My Star tapped him with the whip, the chestnut gelding had the "little bit left" that was in many great hot contests.

The final heat was another nerve-racking contest between the two geldings. This time Melbury dropped back at the turn and trailed till the leaders passed the five-eighths pole, where he pulled out and My Star went around the lunch like a cooer, around a barrel, and then there was another battle royal between him and Argot Boy from there to the wire. Both Melbury and Cox exhausted their art.

TODAY'S RACING CARD.
READVILLE, Mass., Aug. 30.—The attraction at the Readville track today was the 200 pace, in which were entered nearly all the horses that participated in the record breaking race last week when the time was lowered twice. The list for today's races is:

1. 200 Paces. 2. 200 Paces. 3. 200 Paces. 4. 200 Paces. 5. 200 Paces. 6. 200 Paces. 7. 200 Paces. 8. 200 Paces. 9. 200 Paces. 10. 200 Paces.

cluded Hollar, Aaron Grattan, Nevada, Rudy Kip, Wilson Addington and The Friend. The race for the 200 pace last week resulted in a new three heat record for the year, 2:04.

The other events on today's program were also of interest, the 211 trot and the 218 trot. All the purses were for $500, divided under the new system into $250 for each heat.

The resumption of the betting, although restricted under a somewhat combated system, served to attract a considerable crowd to the meeting during the early hours of the day.

WEIGHT QUESTION

MAY CAUSE HITCH IN GANS-NEBSON FIGHT.

If it is left to Referee Siler to decide whether Gans and Nebson shall wear their fighting tops and carry the gloves, they will undoubtedly say they need not. This point was raised by Nolan and he claims that according to the rules the fighters are obliged to do so. Nolan's reason for insisting on such a thing was his hope to force Gans to get a low weight as would weaken him.

Gans declares he will not stand for such a ruling, as it would weaken him. Siler reached Goldfield yesterday and had a talk with Gans and the fight promoters. The weighing-in question was put up to Siler and he said that it is a question for the club to decide, but if it is left to him to pass on the rule that Gans has the same privilege as the contestants in the majority of the championship fights of the last 10 years and can weigh with or without his ring clothes on.

Nolan has shown he is a stubborn fellow, and when he insists on anything nothing can sway him. He says that the fight will be according to the rules and no matter what the referee or anyone else says, he will not recede from the stand he has taken on the weighing-in part of the program.

If Nolan proves as stubborn as he did about who should referee Nebson's fight with Gans, and if Gans will not agree with Nolan's ruling, there is apt to be not only no fight, but some serious trouble.

Gans has also taken a hand in bringing up knotty questions. He says that according to the wording of the article about weighing into the ring after the fight, he can take his time about weighing into the ring after the fight.

While the sports do not blame Nolan for taking advantage of every point to match his man well, they do consider he is unsportsmanlike in insisting on Gans weighing in with his toes on, after Gans consented to cut the time down to 15 feet.

STONEHAM CO.

GOT PRIZE IN SEA GIRT COMPETITION.

SEA GIRT, N. J., Aug. 30.—Massachusetts was again in evidence yesterday in the national and New Jersey military rifle competitions, winning third place in the Tyro match after an exciting contest in which 19 teams from many states participated.

The event was won by the Gatling gun platoon of Illinois, which rolled up a score of 130 points. First troop, Denver cavalry, was second, with 128, and Co. H, Stoneham, 6th infantry, M.V.M. third, with 126.

The day was disagreeable for shooting, rain falling in torrents, and in the middle of the Wimbledon cup match, in which more than 250 of the best shots in the country are entered, shooting was called off.

At the time the match was called off several of the Massachusetts men were well in with good scores.

The reservation where the camp is pitched is a quarantine tonight and passing from one street to another is accomplished with difficulty.

The shooting this morning when the weather conditions were more favorable was good, and the whole Massachusetts contingent did well. Two of the coming members of the state contingent are undoubtedly the Sweeney boys and their work has attracted considerable attention here. Capt. Duncan M. Stewart is also shooting well.

In the Tyro match Massachusetts had two teams and one man. The conditions were five shots at 500 yards and five shots at 500 yards, three men to a team.

The ordinances that govern the sale of ice cream make no provision for dealing as to the fitness of dealers or the cleanliness of the premises in which the commodity is manufactured.

The commission which regulates the granting of permits consists of Chief of Police Burke, Scales of Weights and Measures McCarthy and Inspector Wright of the board of health.

Owing to several complaints made of ptomaine poisoning, and the fact that many places where hokey pokey is made have been found unclean and even filthy, no permits have yet been granted.

Consequently, all the hokey pokey vending as now carried on is illegal, and yet no effort has been made to enforce the law.

The recent cases have, however, roused public opinion to such a pitch that some sanitary action now seems imminent.

WHIRLED IN AIR

Thrilling Experience of Brooklyn Woman

KINGSTON, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Caught by the anchor of a balloon and whirled 500 feet in the air over the heads of 500 spectators, a Mrs. Roper of Brooklyn, N. Y., who has been spending the summer in Ulster county, was seriously injured but not fatally hurt yesterday at the Ulster county fair at Ellenville.

Maggie Bailey of Middletown, N. Y., who has been making daily ascensions at the fair grounds in a hot air balloon, had just entered the car yesterday afternoon and was about to give the order to cast off when the balloon broke loose and sailed upwards with the anchor trailing.

Before the bystanders could scatter the anchor broke caught in Mrs. Roper's dress and she was whipped up into the air screaming. The weight of the anchor rope caused the balloon to tip over, and Miss Bailey, looking out of the car to ascertain the cause of the trouble, caught sight of her unwilling fellow voyager swinging far below at the end of the rope, and at once pulled the safety cord.

The balloon, which by that time had reached a height of 500 feet, quickly descended and landed the ground a quarter of a mile from the point of ascension.

Mrs. Roper struck the ground heavily and when picked up was found to be unconscious. She had sustained fractures of the shoulder and of several fingers.

DIED SUDDENLY AT COTTAGE CITY.

COTTAGE CITY, Aug. 29.—As a result of a fall into the water from a pier upon which he was at work in front of his summer residence here, Professor William Buck Dwight, professor of geology and mineralogy at Vassar College, died very suddenly yesterday.

The physician who was called decided that death was caused by apoplexy, due probably to over-exertion.

MARRIED ON TIME

But Ceremony Took Place in Hospital

GROOM RECENTLY HURT IN NEW YORK

Marriage Allowed to Aid His Recovery

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—With half of his body encased in plaster of paris, too weak to rise from an invalid chair, Fred A. Swan, a wealthy real estate broker, was married yesterday in the staff room of Flower hospital, surrounded by white-uniformed doctors and nurses, to Miss Adelaide Wood of Dorchester, Mass.

The surgeons consented to the marriage in the hospital in the hope of saving Swan's life.

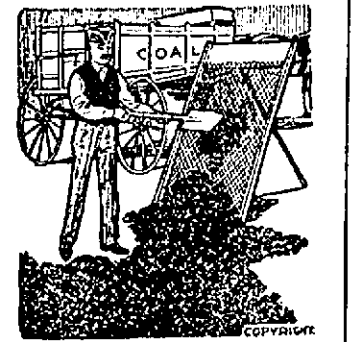

He worried so much about his wedding, which had been fixed for yesterday in Boston, that his injuries would not heal and the doctors feared gangrene would set in and cause either his death or the loss of both legs.

Mr. Swan is 31 years old and lives at 125 West 43d street, in the Carlton apartments. He is a son of J. Benjamin Swan of Tecumseh, Mich., several times a millionaire.

On the evening of Aug. 20 Mr. Swan was on a north bound 6th avenue surface car, standing on the running board, because of the crowded condition of the car. At 48th street he was struck by a motor car owned and driven by J. H. Kirby. He was knocked off the car, dragged a short distance and thrown with great force against an L pillar.

An ambulance from Flower hospital arrived and Dr. Day found that in addition to superficial injuries the young man had a compound fracture of the right foot and ankle and a compound fracture of the left foot.

After an operation the patient remained so feverish and restless that the doctors feared gangrene. He was continually asking when he could get out of the hospital. His condition became so alarming that Dr. Hornby, superintendent of the hospital, went to his room and had a heart-to-heart talk with him.

I am aware of the fact that it is an old tale, but I must reiterate the statement that the coal from the mines which are shipped to me, are as careful as careful can be, but that doesn't tell the whole story—I give it a thorough screening myself. Result, you get clean coal.

The superintendent told the young man that he wanted him to confide in his recovery, as the worry was retarding his recovery and might result most seriously.

"I am to be married on the 29th of this month in Boston and 200 or 300 invitations have been issued," Mr. Swan said. "You can appreciate the embarrassment it will cause if I am not there."

Dr. Hornby assured him there was no possibility of his being able to leave the hospital season and Mr. Swan asked if it could be arranged so that he could be married in the hospital.

"I'll see the head nurse," the superintendent answered.

"The staff room is a very nice place," Miss Tully, the head nurse, said. "It can be fixed up nicely for a wedding."

The staff room is the meeting place of the physicians and surgeons. Mr. Swan communicated with Miss Wood. She agreed.

Mr. Swan's father and mother came on from Michigan and Miss Wood, accompanied by her father and mother, arrived at the hospital about 3 in the afternoon. Swan had been placed on a combination stretcher and invalid chair and carried to the staff room.

Surrounded by Drs. Hornby, Case, Lefebvre, Loomis, Day and Cutler and Miss Tully, Mr. Swan and Miss Wood were married according to the ceremony of the society of Friends, both being Quakers. James Wood of Westchester, who is not related to the bride, acted as minister.

After the ceremony luncheon was served, but Mr. Swan was not permitted to touch it. Convalescent patients in the hospital were invited to the luncheon. The flowers were distributed in the wards.

Mrs. Swan has taken a room next to that occupied by her husband and will assist the nurses in caring for him. The doctors say he must remain in the hospital for a month or more.

COW BELLOWED
AND SAVED LIVES OF WHOLE FAMILY.

PEARBODY, Aug. 29. M. W. Ellis and his wife and family of four children had a narrow escape from being victims of a fire which burned the farmhouse in which they lived last night.

They were asleep when the fire, which started on the first floor of the house, was discovered, and the smoke had already filled the chambers on the second floor, when Mr. Ellis was awakened.

He aroused Mrs. Ellis, and they succeeded in getting the children out safely, although two of the little ones were unconscious.

The bellowing of a cow which was fastened in a heap close to the house awakened Mr. Ellis, and undoubtedly saved the lives of the entire family.

The loss is $4000, insurance $3000.

GREEN MISSING
A SALISBURY BEACH RESIDENT DISAPPEARS.

SALISBURY BEACH, Aug. 30.—The whereabouts of George Green, for the past half dozen years a candy manufacturer at Salisbury beach, continues a mystery to his brother and partner as well as to his many friends and associates.

On the last day of July he started for Revere beach, where he proposed to stop a day or two. A few days later his brother Joseph received a line from him stating that he had been overpowered by the heat, but had so far recovered that he was starting for the home of their sister in Taunton, Mrs. Devore.

Since that time no intelligence has been received from him. Some years ago Mr. Green suffered a sunstroke and with this new attack it is feared that his mind may be temporarily deranged. He took about $100 with him and wore a valuable diamond pin, consequently there are some fears that he might have met with foul play. No known reason exists why he should absent himself at this time, the busy season having been heard from since his disappearance and no mention is made of having seen him.

John P. Mahoney Secretary—
The Convention Urges Naturalization

Letter to P. A. HOWARD, Lowell, Mass.:
Dear Sir: We shall feel obliged if you will write us how you came out on your first few jobs Devore, as to gallons expected and used.

Take Job A. You made your price, expecting to use 25 gallons Devore, and used 15. Job B. You expected to use 15 and used 10. And tell us what paint you had used before. Of course, you judge Devore by what you have used before.

Here's how a few came out.
M. A. Thomas, painter, Lynchburg, Va., writes: My first job with Devore, I estimated 37 gallons; it took 25. Since then I have used nothing else.

C. B. Edwards, Raleigh, N. C., had used 20 gallons paste paint on his house, and bought 30 gallons Devore; A. E. Glenn, his painter, said it wouldn't be enough. Had 15 gallons left.

Mayor W. W. Carroll, Monticello, Florida, writes: Painter estimated 35 gallons for my house; took 20 gallons Devore.

Gilmore & Davis Co., contractors and painters, Tallahassee, Florida, say 2 gallons Devore spreads as far as 3 of any other paint they know, and covers better.

S. A. Bullard, painter, Sanford, Florida, estimated 50 gallons for Odd Fellows and Masonic Halls; they took 22 Devore.

Jones & Rogers, Merced, Texas, estimated 10 gallons Devore for Mr. Pratt's house and bought 5 gallons for first coat; it painted two coats.

Erh-Springall Co., San Antonio, Texas, painted two houses same size for D. J. Woodward, one lead-and-kill, the other Devore. Devore cost $12 less for paint and labor.

Tom Massey's painter, Walnut Springs, Texas, estimated for his house 10 gallons Devore; he had 4 left.

You see how it goes. Even the best painters can't guess little enough at first.

Yours truly,
P. W. DEVORE & CO.,
New York.

A. O. H. CONVENTION

Elected Captain John J. Rogers as State President

CAPTAIN JOHN J. ROGERS, STATE PRESIDENT, A. O. H.

John P. Mahoney Secretary—
The Convention Urges Naturalization

FALL RIVER, Aug. 30.—Never in the been shown such intense interest in a history of the A. O. H. has there state convention as in the selection for state officers.

When Captain John J. Rogers of Worcester was announced as the successful candidate for state president the wild scenes of enthusiasm prevailed.

Terrance O'Donnell of Holyoke was elected vice-president, Daniel Kelly of Weymouth treasurer, John P. Mahoney of Lowell secretary.

URGENT NATURALIZATION.
The weather conditions continued to be perfect and when President Cummings called the convention together at 2 1/2 p. m. a full attendance was present.

The state president was given a tremendous ovation upon the presentation of his report and his recommendations were unanimously adopted.

The various committee reports were received during the day.

In addition to the recommendation of State President Cummings, the following resolution, presented by Editor George H. Sheehan of the Liberator, was adopted by the convention:

Whereas, congress has caused to be enacted a law which makes it more difficult for members of our race to assume citizenship, and whereas this iniquitous law becomes operative Sept. 23 of the current year, therefore be it

Resolved, that we, the A. O. H. in state convention assembled, respectfully urge all Irishmen eligible to citizenship to take advantage of the existing law at once.

CONTESTS EXCITING.
The contest in the nomination of state officers was exciting.

Mr. Rogers was placed in nomination by Attorney McLoughlin of Worcester, and was seconded in an able speech by Alderman James M. Curley of Boston, and a representative of each county in the state.

John H. Donnelly of Cambridge was nominated by John Shea of Cambridge and the Rev. Father Ryan of Lowell, and much applause.

The candidates for other officers were nominated by their respective admirers. The election was tried for the first time under the Australian system.

The result was:
For state president—John J. Rogers of Worcester, 20; John H. Donnelly of Cambridge, 20.

For state vice-president—Terrance O'Donnell of Holyoke, 20; James Ryan of Lynn 17.

For state secretary—John P. Mahoney of Lowell, 20; J. J. Coughlin of Boston, 12; John J. Dally of Boston, 10.

For state treasurer—Daniel Kelly of Weymouth, 23; W. J. Joyce of Pittsfield, 10.

CONDEMN TAMPER ASSOCIATION.
The various elections were made unanimously by those contesting against them, and the new officers were installed by National President Cummings.

A number of delegates called the attention of the convention to treatment received from the New England Traffic Association and presented a resolution condemning that institution for alleged violation of agreement.

National President Cummings condemned the same severely for what he termed an injustice.

BISHOP LAWRENCE
BOSTON, Aug. 30.—The Cunard liner Ivernia arrived at this port today from Liverpool having on board the largest number of passengers ever brought to Boston on one steamer.

There were 171 sailors, 233 second class, and 1,976 third class passengers, on board the steamer. Among the passengers were Bishop and Mrs. William Lawrence.

HARVARD CREW

Made Fine Showing in Time Row

FITNEY, Aug. 30.—Harvard's stock is steadily appreciating for the big race with Cambridge a week from Saturday. Yesterday the principal cause was the time row of the Cambridge crew.

The Englishmen rowed over the course downstream this morning in 20m 6s.

Harvard rowed it Tuesday in 19m 6s.

The conditions were different, however. Harvard rowing upstream with a strong flood tide and a slight favoring wind, while Cambridge rowed downstream with a stronger ebb tide but a light head wind.

On the other hand Harvard paddled all but the last mile, while Cambridge rowed hard all the way, and several of the members of the crew were pretty well done up at the finish.

Cambridge started off with a 34-in-the-minute stroke, then dropped to 31, later to 30, and at the finish the men were unable to follow a higher stroke.

Harvard rowed the greater part of the distance at 25, rising to 32 at the finish.

Altogether it is thought that the conditions of the course last June, after a service of 33 years, most of the time as commander.

COL. EDMANDS
FORMERLY OF FIRST CORPS OF CADETS PASSED AWAY.

BOSTON, Aug. 30.—Lieut. Col. Thomas P. Edmands, formerly commander of the first corps of cadets, MVM, died this morning about 3:30 at his home, 19 Tremont st., after an illness of some duration.

Col. Edmands retired from command of the corps last June, after a service of 33 years, most of the time as commander.
